Policies and Procedures for Employees

When behavior referenced in a Title IX complaint involves a member of the professional staff, the District will utilize the procedures for resolving charges of sexual misconduct outlined in Evergreen's Board Policy, BP 4119.11, 4219.11, 4319.11, Sexual Harassment, and AR 4031, Complaints Concerning Discrimination in Employment.

There are Federal laws that establish responsibilities for employees of schools to report certain types of crimes and incidents, especially sexual misconduct. The responsibilities established by these laws give rise to the term "mandatory or mandated reporter." Evergreen Union School District has defined all employees, both faculty and professional staff, as mandated reporters.

Policies and Procedures for Students

When behavior referenced in a Title IX complaint involves a student, the District will utilize the procedures for resolving charges of discrimination and harassment outlined in Evergreen's Board Policy, BP 5145.3, Nondiscrimination/Harassment.
